

1 The government budget was released in late February. May God continue to guide our government leaders to wisely implement and allocate resources for the welfare of the city. Pray for wisdom, integrity, and dedication in execution so as to foster growth, stability, and justice. May this budget uplift the vulnerable, strengthen our economy, and bring blessings to the entire city. Amen!

Wed

3 Today is Good Friday! May we meditate on the suffering and crucifixion of Jesus Christ; and be uplifted by His word, His sacrificial example and His presence. Let's pray for strength to always persist in our vision and mission with passion and conviction even in times of adversity. Amen!

Fri

5 Hallelujah! Christ is Risen! Pray that through Our Lord's resurrection, all Christian Action (CA)'s staff and supporters are lifted up, just as it says in Isaiah 40:31, "...those who wait for the Lord shall change and renew their strength and power; they shall lift their wings and mount up as eagles..."

Sun

7 Give thanks! Since April, our new volunteer management system has gone live. Pray for God's continuous wisdom and strength upon our team, and that more people would be moved to join our voluntary service. May the team grow into a steadfast pillar of support—reflecting God's love through selfless dedication and heartfelt contributions. As Scripture reminds us, "...whoever refreshes others will be refreshed". Proverbs 11:25b Amen!

Tue

9 During this week, our volunteer team has been conducting two home visits in the Wong Tai Sin District. May their efforts strengthen bonds, nurture a spirit of belonging, and foster deeper cohesion among neighbours, reflecting God's love through genuine care and connection. Amen!

Thu

11 In alignment with the government's policy encouraging STEM disciplines, our Mong Kok Service Centre (MKC) will co-host a "Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics" (STEM) workshop with a corporate partner today, specially designed for our child clients. Pray that this initiative will spark wonder in their hearts, help them discover the unique gifts God has endowed them with, and inspire a deeper sense of purpose and direction in their learning path.

Sat

13 Congratulations! Our Diversity Hub (DH) at Chung King Mansions has received the "International Design Award" (IDA 2025 Bronze Award for Cultural and Community Interior Design). DH serves as a welcoming space for both local residents and international visitors, to learn about the ethnic minority (EM) community in the city.

Mon

2 In these two days, our Child Development Fund (CDF) team will host an overnight camp for 80 mentees. Pray for favorable weather and that each participant derives pleasure from the experiential activities. Pray that our younger generation will be empowered with courage, mutual respect, and wisdom, gained through self-exploration and team building. Amen!

Thu

4 Tomorrow is Ching Ming Festival (a.k.a. tomb sweeping day). Traditionally, Chinese people visit and sweep the tombs of their ancestors. Many of our social services clients, especially new arrivals, will return to The Mainland to pay their respects to their ancestors. Please pray for a safe and smooth journey for them.

Sat

6 CA's Season of Love (SOL) Charity Sale 2026 partners with five local designers to sell meaningful gifts and board games. Pray that the Lord blesses this initiative to proceed smoothly, inspire generous support, and raise funds that bring hope, care, and blessings to underprivileged families, children, and caregivers. Amen.

Mon

8 Besides lifting in prayer the families affected by the Tai Po Fire who have been relocated to Kai Tak Transitional Housing (Kai Fook Kui), we are partnering with a local church to host six relaxation workshops beginning in late March, as a further expression of care and concern. May this shared tragedy reinforce our resolve to embody mercy, justice, and compassion toward the less fortunate in our community, and may we walk together faithfully on this long journey of recovery. Amen!

Wed

10 Some primary 6 pupils under our after-school care programme have just got their first-round Secondary School Placement Allocation results. Pray that they feel empowered to start a new chapter in their secondary school life with God's grace and peace. Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it. Proverbs 22:6 Amen!

Fri

12 The devastating Tai Po fire claimed 168 lives, and many were displaced. We thank God for the courage of Indonesian migrant domestic workers who saved lives amid the chaos. In January, with support from the Indonesian Consulate, the Fire Department, doctors, and counselors, we gathered with affected workers to assure them they are never alone. Pray for their healing, resilience, and continued recognition of their service. Amen!

Sun

14 Praise God. This week, our MKC will conduct home visits, distributing blessing bags to clients who are sub-divided flat tenants in Sham Shui Po, under a supportive programme sponsored by a local bank. Pray that we continue partnering with others to share love, care, and

	May this recognition inspire visitors to gain deeper insights into the EM community and encourage more people to join us in fostering mutual understanding and social cohesion. Amen!		hope with the disadvantaged in our community. Amen!
15 Wed	Please pray for God's strength and wisdom upon the Sheung Shui Service Centre (SSC) and Long Ping Service Centre (LPSC) as they expand their after-school care services. May the Lord watch over each child, grant them growth beyond academics through healthy relationships, activities, and age-group interactions, while easing parents' burdens through our supportive care as most of them have to work long hours to subsist. Amen.	16 Thu	Praise God! Starting this month, a new automated food dispenser at Choi Wan Centre (CAC) is providing 100 meal packages to deprived families nearby. May we continue to bring warmth and strength to the weak and poor, living out the words of Scripture: "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink....." Matthew 25:35.
17 Fri	We have started operating the "Smart Living" Scheme in Kowloon granted by the Employees Retraining Board (ERB), since this April. The initiative offers a free, one-stop referral platform connecting employers with trained domestic helpers, while enhancing job opportunities and networks for ERB trainees. Pray that we can succeed to support evolving job market needs and provide up-to-date employment information, for job seekers. Amen!	18 Sat	Today, some student clients from MKC, under International Christian Assembly (ICA)'s English Connect, will join an English speech competition. Pray that God blesses their efforts and that more churches will support our mission, bringing care, hope, opportunities and experiences to children and families in disadvantaged communities. Amen.
19 Sun	The EM service team at On Tai Service Centre (OTSC) re-launched its after-school care program in April 2026. Pray for strength and wisdom for the tutors as they guide EM children in their studies, and may each child feel supported, encouraged, and empowered throughout their learning journey. Amen.	20 Mon	Our fund raising team and our IT Department are working together on an online sales platform for our raffle ticket drive, which will be launched soon. Let us pray for smooth progress and for the success of the whole project to raise part of the funds for us.
21 Tue	Answered prayer Give thanks to our Lord! Since April, we have begun partnering with 2 local NGOs in Qinghai province to support medical and social work for EM communities and needy children there. Pray that we may continue to strive faithfully to promote the well being of the deprived sector on the Tibetan Plateau; reflecting God's compassion and care in all we do. Amen.	22 Wed	This April, our Ethnic Minorities Youth Ambassador (EMAm) team has been engaging EM youth through diverse activities—Chinese learning, tutorials, board games, bowling, and jewelry workshop. Pray that these experiences broaden their interests, foster resilience, and nurture a strong sense of belonging, so they may integrate into the wider community with confidence and ease. Amen
23 Thu	Today, we gather for our board meeting with grateful hearts, seeking the Lord's continued guidance, wisdom, and providence. May He bless our dedicated board members and colleagues who share the mission and vision of caring for the vulnerable and needy, both in Hong Kong and Qinghai. Amen.	24 Fri	Mrs. Cheung-Ang Siew Mei, JP, our Executive Director, in her capacity as a Justice of Peace, will visit the inmates of Tai Tam Gap Correctional Institution this month. Pray that her visit is productive and beneficial to the inmates; and encourages those who look after them. Amen!
25 Sat	Hooray!The EM service team of OTSC has successfully completed the first round of the soccer tournament. Pray that the players grow stronger in maturity and character through their field experiences, developing teamwork, discipline, and resilience. May they gradually come to understand that God has a plan to prosper them and give them hope. Amen!	26 Sun	Answered Prayer Our Migrant Domestic Workers (MDW) Programme team is grateful for one of our shelter tenants who has successfully completed her labour case last month. May this joy ignite hope and faith in God to others still awaiting progress. May all shelter clients feel God's love and be encouraged by this testimony of perseverance and grace. Amen!
27 Mon	Our Social Enterprise Department (SED) has co-organized several ESG events highlighting Environmental, Social or Governance issues with the private enterprises this month. Pray that we continue to partner with different stakeholders in the community for green advocacy and environmental education to the public. Amen!	28 Tue	Starting from this April, our OTSC has been conducting activities to support residents in Kwun Tong North in job seeking, skills enrichment, and interview techniques. Pray that beneficiaries feel embraced and encouraged, regaining courage to pursue long-term employment, and that God's love strengthens them to rebuild their lives with hope and dignity. Amen.
29 Wed	Our SED has launched various activities under "Green Collection Charity Drives" in different private housing estates in Kowloon this month. Pray that public awareness will be significantly aroused to support our ministry; and people understand this is also a means to fulfill our charity work.	30 Thu	Next month, some children from our MKC Centre will enjoy an excursion to a motorcar showroom in Kowloon Bay and take part in a remote control model car contest. Pray that they experience joy and fun through these activities, fostering curiosity, confidence, and meaningful memories in their learning journey. Amen!
